LOCAL NEWS.

CIRCUIT COURT, Thursday.—R. S. French, trustee, &c., vs. J. B. Stewart, et al.—in chancery—demurrer of defendants overruled; and answers to plaintiff's bill filed by J. N. Harper and J. S. French.

Hessellus Smith, et al. vs. Wm. Smith—in chancery—title of property in dispute ordered to be conveyed to plaintiffs, and H. O. Claughton, appointed to make the conveyance.

Wm. Cogan vs. James Smith, et al.—in chancery—decree for sale of real estate belonging to Adelaide Moore and others, on Cameron street, and W. B. Price appointed commissioner to make the sale.

John Marshall, guardian, vs. Wilmer D. Corse, et al.—in chancery—confirmation of sale of real estate, and order for the sale of the other real estate in controversy, and W. D. Corse appointed commissioner to make the sale.

J. M. Carlisle, of Washington, was admitted to practice in this Court.

The case of Bonnell, Brown, Hall & Co., vs. C. G. Wildman's administrator, et al. The jury were sworn and the evidence heard and the case continued to-day.

In our report of the proceedings of the Court on Wednesday last, the case of Allen vs. Allen should have read: a decree of divorce, a vinculo matrimonii granted, and the real estate and property settled on Mary D. Allen, who was also granted the custody of the children.

ALEXANDRIA CANAL & Co.—The Georgetown letter of the Washington Star says:—"The lessees of the Alexandria Canal, P. Quigley & Co., have begun the work of digging, out the canal which has accumulated in the bed of the canal since it was closed about five years ago, preparatory to an early resumption of trade with Alexandria. The lessees, Quigley, Wells and Dungan, have obtained from the company a lease of 99 years at the rate of $1,000 per annum, and they expect it to be a remunerative investment. The Aqueduct remains in the possession of the Government and the company cannot obtain it until the Long Bridge has been completed, and it is not certain that they will obtain possession even then. There is considerable opposition here to the use of the Aqueduct for any purpose other than a common highway; and this with the Government's own necessity for such a connection with the south side fortifications, may operate against the surrender of the Aqueduct to the company."

Georgetown is doing her best to prevent the use of the Canal, which will so benefit Alexandria, and every obstacle to the re-possession of the Aqueduct will be thrown in the way of the lessees, but we hope, without effect. The Aqueduct is not a government necessity.

THE A. L. & H. R. R.—We are pleased to be able to announce that the bridge structure for Broad Run, on the line of the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad, is nearly completed, and that the road will be in running order to Farmwell in three or four weeks. As soon as this point is reached, the Company will use every exertion to push forward the work to Goose Creek and then on to Leesburg, which point it is earnestly hoped will soon be again in direct railroad communication with Alexandria. The officers of the road deserve great credit for their untiring exertions in rebuilding this important work.

REPORTED CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—It is reported that the Orange and Alexandria and Virginia and Tennessee railroads, are arranging a schedule by which the cars of the former road will arrive in Lynchburg at 3 p. m., and the trains of the latter will leave at 3.30, forming a close connection. The Western train will arrive at 5 a. m., and the Orange leave at 6 a. m. The night train on the Orange road, it is said, is to be withdrawn.—This arrangement, it is stated, is to go into effect at an early day. We presume the South-side road will also change its schedule to connect with the Western cars.—Lynch. News.

VALLEY RAILROAD.—We understand that Richard Radolph, esq., formerly engineer on the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad, with a full corps of engineers, started from Winchester on Monday last, by order of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, for the purpose of surveying the route of the proposed railroad from Winchester to Salem, in Rockingham County. This will include the proposed Strasburg connexion, and unless the Manassas Gap Railroad can be speedily rebuilt, will give Baltimore command of the Valley trade, which should, and ought, of right to belong to Alexandria.

HONORS TO GEN. SCOTT.—At Battery Rodgers, in this place, and all the adjacent fortifications at present occupied, in obedience to orders from the War Department, guns were fired to-day every half hour, the troops paraded at 10 o'clock, and the order read to them announcing the death of Gen. Scott, after which labor ceased, and the flags were kept at half mast during the day.

THE GERMAN DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION will have another performance at their hall this evening. The programme for the occasion is "Eine Partie Piquet," and "Komiker und Soubrette." Arrangements have been made to make this a performance par excellence, as it will probably be the last one of the season.

GREENPEAS AND STRAWBERRIES are now getting to be abundant, the former especially, and it is said, is a great season for them. We hope to see the price, therefore, moderately. Vegetables soon, now, will generally be very abundant, as the yield of almost all kinds is very large.

MR. BOTTS.—It is stated that the Baltimore City Council Committee of Arrangements, for the celebration of the Fourth of July, have forwarded to Hon. John Minor Botts a letter, inviting him to deliver an address on that day at Patterson Park, in Baltimore.

WHEAT CROP.—Accounts reach us every day of the discouraging prospects as to the Wheat crop, in most of the adjacent counties. Probably a better yield is expected in Loudoun than in most other counties. The corn is coming up finely.

Bishop Johns is present at the Convention of the Episcopal Church in Baltimore. A resolution of gratification at his presence, was passed.

This is the first day of the first summer month.

Taxes are exorbitant, and everybody is complaining. Business is dull, and everybody is complaining, except Deahm who is constantly adding to his stock of men and boys clothing, which he is selling off at prices to suit the times.
